

Monster Swap Student Rubric

	4	3	2	1
Description	I describe everything about my monster. I explain how he looks, sounds, smells, and feels. The reader can easily picture my monster. I use many different kinds of vibrant words to describe my monster to the reader.	I describe many things about my monster. The reader can picture my monster. I use different kinds of vibrant words to describe my monster to the reader.	I describe some things about my monster. The reader can sort of picture my monster. I describe my monster to the reader, but I use the same kinds of words.	I describe very few things about my monster. The reader has a hard time picturing my monster. I need the teacher's help to pick vibrant words to describe my monster to the reader.
Comparison	I find and describe all of the differences between the two monster drawings.	I find and describe many of the differences between the two monster drawings.	I find and describe a few of the differences between the two monster drawings.	I need help to find and describe any differences between the two monster drawings.
Conclusion	I explain and can give examples of how choosing the right words can make a story better. I explain and can give examples of how words can be used to paint a picture. I use examples to explain and answer the question, How can I	I explain how choosing the right words can make a story better. I explain how words can be used to paint a picture. I explain and answer the question, How can I communicate so others will understand?	I somewhat explain how choosing the right words can make a story better. I somewhat explain how words can be used to paint a picture. I answer the question, How can I communicate so others will understand?	I need help to explain how choosing the right words can make a story better. I need help to explain how words can be used to paint a picture. I need help to answer the question, How can I communicate so others will understand?

	communicate so others will understand?
Mechanics	I carefully checked my work. My slides have no errors.	I checked my work. My slides have only one or two errors.	I may not have checked my work. My slides have three or more errors.	I did not check my work. My slides have many errors.