

From Sea to Sea Gauging Student Needs Questions

What can we learn about a place from looking at a map?

(sample responses)

- How far apart cities and towns are
- How close places are to rivers, lakes, and the ocean
- How big towns are
- What roads go to what places
- Where mountains are

What can you tell about Seattle by looking at a map?

- It is by the ocean and has lots of lakes.
- Many smaller towns are nearby.
- I-5 is the major highway that comes into the city.
- There are islands.

From its geography, what do you think are some products and services that might come from Seattle?

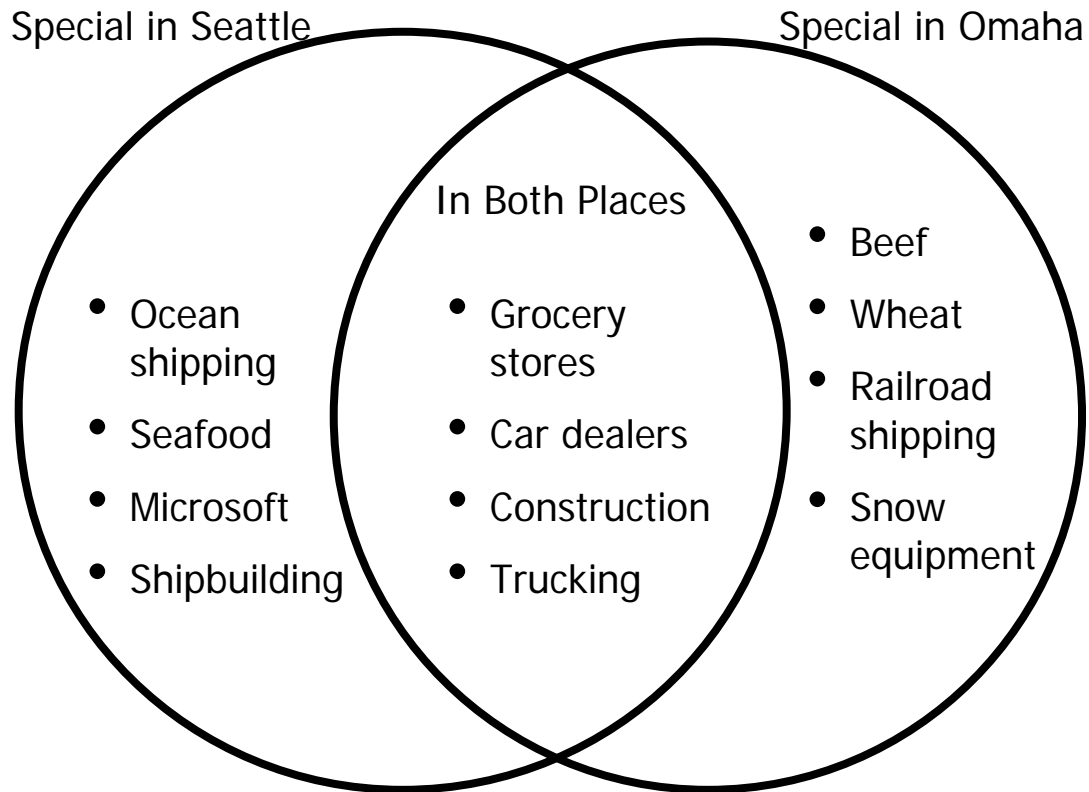

- Fishing
- Cruise ships
- Umbrellas
- Shipping by boat

What are some products and services that people who live in Seattle would need to get from somewhere else?

- Cotton
- Gasoline
- Sunshine

What businesses are located in Seattle?

- Grocery stores, like Albertson's and Safeway
- Target
- Seattle Roofing
- Microsoft

What determines the products and services that a city imports and exports?

- Geography
- Climate
- How many people there are
- What the people like
- What the people need