

Face Log-On

The Face Log-On application provides a simple and convenient way for users to access their computer by using their face as an authorized password. This is made possible through an advanced technology which will make using and interacting with devices that can compute more intuitive and natural.