CONSOLIDATED ACTION

STIPULATION AND CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER NO. 13

WHEREAS, as reflected in Case Management Order No. 12, Paragraph 3(a), there is a dispute between AMD and Intel as to the propriety of calling by deposition adverse employee-witnesses, current and former, that the adverse party is intending to bring to trial and is willing to produce for live cross-examination during the proponent's case in chief;

WHEREAS, AMD and Intel continue to request the Court's early resolution of this dispute;

WHEREAS, as called for by Case Management Order No. 12, Paragraph 3(b)(i), AMD and Intel have met and conferred and have reached agreement that certain third party witnesses are "unavailable" within the meaning of F.R.E. 804(a) or otherwise may be called to testify by deposition without regard to the Court's resolution of the foregoing dispute.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby stipulated by and between AMD and Intel, through their respective counsel of record and subject to the approval of the Court, as follows:

1. It is agreed that the following third party witnesses are unavailable within the meaning of F.R.E. 804(a) and that either party may call such individuals to testify by deposition:

2 Nothing in this stipulation shall limit either party's right to object on a question by question basis to deposition testimony offered into evidence at trial, nor to object to the witness' deposition testimony as a whole on grounds of relevance, cumulativeness, or undue prejudice. Nothing in this stipulation shall prevent either party from calling a third party witness enumerated above live if his or her attendance at trial can be procured; however, in that event the parties do mutually and irrevocably waive the right to object to the other's calling such individual to testify by deposition as provided for in paragraph 1 hereof.
