JOINT PROPOSED STATUS CONFERENCE REPORT AND AGENDA FOR MARCH 7, 2007 STATUS CONFERENCE

Plaintiffs ADVANCED MICRO DEVICES, INC. and AMD INTERNATIONAL SALES & SERVICE, LTD. (hereafter, jointly, "AMD"), Plaintiffs in the Class Litigation ("Class Plaintiffs") and Defendants INTEL CORPORATION and INTEL KABUSHIKI KAISHA (hereafter, jointly, "Intel") have conferred and, by and through their undersigned attorneys, jointly offer the following proposed agenda items for the March 7, 2007 Status Conference for the Court's consideration:

1. Document Preservation Issues: Intel has identified to AMD and the class issues that have arisen in connection with its program for document preservation, which will be the subject of separate filings. The parties propose identifying the issues for the Court and discussing an appropriate plan of action to address the issues and the potential for their remediation.
2. Cut-Off for AMD/Intel Document Exchange: At the September 27, 2006 Status Conference, the Court reset the final date for the exchange of custodian documents by AMD and Intel to March 27, 2007 with the proviso that the Court would grant one reasonable, agreed-upon extension. Pursuant to the May 17, 2006 Stipulation and Order re Document Production”, the parties are nearing completion of the exchange of documents from “Party-Designated Custodians,” but will need additional time to fully complete this exchange as well as the production of documents of those “Adverse Party-Designated Custodians” that will be exchanged prior to the commencement of deposition discovery. In light of the document preservation issues that have arisen, the Parties will ask the Court to defer establishing a final document exchange cut-off until a final recommendation and plan of action is adopted to address these issues.
3. Class Certification Briefing Schedule: The Class Plaintiffs and Intel propose the following new schedule for class certification. Intel's agreement to these new dates is based on the assumption that the third party data production will be completed by March 31, 2007. Class Plaintiffs' agreement is not contingent, and they believe that absent unforeseen circumstances, no further extension of the class certification schedule would be appropriate.

Event	New Date
