Docket No. 9341

MICROSOFT CORPORATION'S UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE MOTION TO QUASH OR LIMIT COMPLAINT COUNSEL'S SUBPOENA *DUCES TECUM

Non-party Microsoft Corporation ("Microsoft") files this unopposed Motion for Extension of Time to File Motion to Quash or Limit Complaint Counsel's Subpoena Duces Tecum, received by Microsoft's agent for service of process on April 7, 2010 ("Subpoena"). The Subpoena includes seventeen (17) requests for production of documents.

Pursuant to the FTC's Rules of Practice, 16 C.F.R. § 3.34(c), Microsoft has ten (10) days in which to file a motion to quash or limit the Subpoena, or until April 19, 2010.

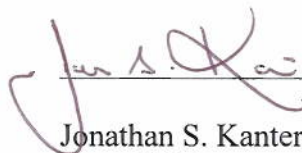

Microsoft's Counsel and Complaint Counsel have agreed that Microsoft shall have until May 3, 2010 to file a motion to quash or limit the Subpoena. Microsoft's Counsel and Complaint Counsel are in negotiations regarding the Subpoena and require more time to complete their negotiations effectively. In addition, because Microsoft will respond to both Complaint Counsel's Subpoena as well as Intel Corporation's ("Intel") subpoena and due to the substantial overlap between their specifications, Microsoft's Counsel and Complaint Counsel have agreed it will be most efficient for Microsoft's time to file a motion to quash or limit the Subpoena to correspond to Microsoft's deadline to file a motion to quash or limit Intel's subpoena, which is currently due May 3, 2010.

Accordingly, Microsoft respectfully requests that this unopposed motion be granted and that Microsoft have until May 3, 2010 to file a motion to quash or limit the Subpoena.¹ Further, during such time, Microsoft's obligations to otherwise respond to the Subpoena shall be tolled.

Undersigned counsel represents that they have conferred with Complaint Counsel and that Complaint Counsel does not object to the proposed extension.
